HOW MRS. BEAN MET THE CRISIS

Carried Safely Through Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Nashville, Tenn.—"When I was going through the Change of Life I had a tumor as large as a child's head. The doctor said it was three years coming and gave me medicine for it until I was called away from the city for some time. Of course I could not go to him then, so my sister-in-law told me that she thought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure it. It helped both the Change of Life and the tumor and when I got home I did not need the doctor. I took the Pinkham remedies until the tumor was gone, the doctor said, and I have not felt it since. I tell every one how I was cured. If this letter will help others you are welcome to use it." —Mrs. E. H. BEAN, 525 Joseph Avenue, Nashville, Tenn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a pure remedy containing the extractive properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, meets the needs of woman's system at this critical period of her life. Try it.

If there is any symptom in your case which puzzles you, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

The Retort Courteous. "Ha, ha," sneered the lawyer in court, "you doctors are all alike. Your operations are always successful, but your patients die."

"Sometimes that happens," said the doctor calmly, "but we doctors have nothing on you lawyers. You win great victories for your clients, but you get all the money."

It's All in Learning How. "It isn't so hard to pronounce those Polish war names after you once learn how."

"Pshaw! A man who used to bump down a flight of stairs on his head, in vauville, told me it wasn't so hard to do after you once learned how."

Dora told Mary

Dora told Mary, and Mary told Katie, and that is the way they found out Ross' "Dead Quick" Spray is the quickest death to bedbugs, ants, fleas, roaches, chicken mites, plants and vegetable insects. It kills mosquitoes, too and they like to advertise a good thing. Sold in Somerville and Moscow by Rhea Drug Co., and Moscow Drug Co. 10-1

ROYAL HUSSAR BAND FEATURED AT MEMPHIS

Natiello Will Play at the Tri-State Fair September 25 to October 3

Tennessee, Mississippi and Arkansas Band and Orchestra Also Will Furnish Music

Music of rare quality will be one of the distinctive features of the Tri-State Fair at Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 25 to Oct. 3. Four bands, three orchestras and soloists of national reputation have been engaged by Frank D. Fuller, secretary of the fair.

Natiello's Royal Hussar Band of thirty-five high-class musicians, including the famous bandmaster, Signor Ernesto Natiello, and noted soloists and instrumentalists, will be the big daily musical feature.

In addition to this band of international reputation, the best band each from Tennessee, Mississippi and Arkansas will play at the fair. A Tennessee band will play on Tennessee Day, a Mississippi band Mississippi Day, and an Arkansas band Arkansas Day.

Orchestra concerts will be given daily in the Women's Building, in the New Shelby County Building and at the Auto Show under the grand stand.

Another musical feature that will be tremendously popular will be the return engagement of Miss Charlotte M. Brand, soloist, who made such a decided hit at the Tri-State Fair two years ago. She was engaged to return to Memphis this season after hundreds of fair patrons had expressed a desire to hear her again.

Miss Brand will sing each afternoon of the fair in the Shelby County Building and in the Women's Building. Each night she will sing in connection with Natiello's Band. She also will give concert solos nightly.

"Give the people the music they want"—this is the motto of Signor Natiello and his bandmen. The programs will be arranged to please all classes of music lovers, and will range from the ragtime of the music halls to the classics of grand opera.

The regular soloist with the band is Marianne Conway, one of the foremost concert sopranos in the United States. She has sung with the Boston Fadoles, Theodore Roehmbildt's Orchestra, Rich. Max Hornig's Orchestra and others of similar standing.

A feature that is attracting much attention wherever Natiello's band appears is the Una-Fon, a new instrument. It is played like a piano and has a rich tone that can be heard at great distance. This band was the first to include the Una-Fon in its equipment.

Ernesto Natiello, leader of this celebrated band, was born in Italy in 1878. Six years later his father, Signor Antonio Natiello, came to America and was appointed bandmaster on the United States Ship Brooklyn. He made Ernesto cornet soloist in a band he had organized in Philadelphia.

In 1889 Ernesto returned to Europe to finish his musical studies. Attaining the highest degree of perfection on the cornet, young Natiello came back to America as soloist with the Band of Milan. After an American tour, he returned to Naples and enlisted in the Italian army, serving as cornetist in his regiment for six months. Then he again came to America and joined a prominent band, shortly after which he recruited a musical organization of his own.

TRI-STATE WOMEN WILL HAVE BUILDING AT FAIR

Feminine Department at the Memphis Exposition Will Be Greatly Enlarged This Year

Tri-State women are to have a building all their own this year for the first time in the nine years' history of the Tri-State Fair, at Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 25 to Oct. 3.

As a result of this special recognition, the women's department of the Tri-State Fair will be larger by far than ever before. New sections have been added and the premium list has been greatly enlarged.

The women's building has been remodeled during the summer months, and will be spick and span when the ladies begin to fill it with their manifold exhibits.

Miss Ada Harris, director of the women's department, has been hard at work all summer on plans for new features to be added this year. She is being assisted by an advisory board, composed of city and country women, who have entered upon their new work with enthusiasm.

Among the many special new features will be a Red Cross booth, in which graduate nurses will give daily demonstrations of first aid treatments, the proper care of babies, and kindred subjects.

A model kitchen, in which the furnishings will be arranged to save time, steps and labor, will be another new departure in the women's building. In connection with the model kitchen, cooking demonstrations will be a daily feature.

One of the notable new features of the women's department this year will be the juvenile classes to encourage children under sixteen years of age to engage in useful work. The fair management hopes in this way to train young girls to become good housewives later in life. A special premium list for the work of children has been arranged.

The exhibition of high art in the women's building is expected to attract wide interest and attention. Classes have been arranged for professionals and amateurs, and a fund of several hundred dollars has been set aside to induce tri-state artists to exhibit their best canvases and sketches.

Children are to be given special encouragement in the art section also. Premiums are offered for the best collection of five drawings or paintings of wild flowers found in Tennessee, Arkansas or Mississippi; pencil or charcoal drawings from life; oil paintings from nature, water-color paintings from nature, and specimens of clay modeling.

Unusual Character.

"It isn't often you meet a man as modest as Twobble."

"No?"

"He acknowledges that his watch occasionally loses a few seconds."
